Reinhart joins WDA staff

The WDA would like to welcome Lisa Reinhart. Lisa is the new Agriculture Program Coordinator for the Jonah Interagency Mitigation and Reclamation Office (JIO) in Pinedale.

Her responsibilities with the JIO include mitigating the natural resource impacts on the Jonah Gas Field near Boulder, Wyoming. She is responsible for livestock grazing issues, reclamation and project development.

The JIO was created by the Jonah Project Record of Decision (ROD) to provide overall management of field monitoring and mitigation activities, both on- and off-site. To perform these functions, the JIO manages a $24.5 million monitoring and mitigation fund donated by EnCana Oil & Gas (USA), Inc.

Lisa has a Bachelor's Degree in Equine Science and a Master's Degree in Integrated Resource Management, both from Colorado State University. Before coming to the WDA, Lisa worked for USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service as a Rangeland Management Specialist. Lisa is married, has two dogs, and is Pinedale's newest homeowner. In her free time, she enjoys outdoor recreation and horseback riding.

The JIO is located at 107½ Fremont Ave. in Pinedale. Lisa can be reached by calling (307) 367-3991. The JIO can also be viewed on the web at www.wy.blm.gov/jonah_office.
